OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject: Asian Economic Development and Integration E-Learning Courses Organized by Asian Development Bank Institute (ADBI) March- June 2018

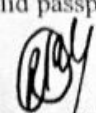

The undersigned is directed to state that Asian Development Bank Institute (ADBI) has planned to organize its E-learning course on "Asian Economic Development and Integration" from 19 March to 15 June 2018. (Copy enclosed). The workshop is fully funded by ADB.

2. The course provides an overview of the key factors influencing the rapid growth and development of Asian economies since the 1950s, with a focus on developments since the Asian financial crisis of 1997-98. ADBI will select 50 participants and they will be expected to write a weekly reflection paper and submit a short 3000-4000 word paper related to one of the topic discussed during the lectures. ADBI has requested nominations of two junior to mid-level government officials to participate in the course. The nominees should;

- Hold an official position in a related ministry or agency of the government
- Have at least 2-3 years of experience in policy-making
- Have the skills to analyse Asian economic development issues and propensity to write a research paper on one of the specified topics
- Be proficient in English, the language of the course

The 8 best papers will be selected, and their authors will be invited to Tokyo Japan in November, 2018 to present their papers at the ADBI. Participants who complete all assignments will be awarded a certificate of participation from ADBI sent to their addresses by post.

4. It is requested that nominations of two relevant officers one each from Ministry of Planning, Development & Reform and Finance Division along with copy of valid passport & CV may be furnished to this Division latest by 7th March, 2018.
