

JOB DESCRIPTION OF CONSULTANT, PRIVATE SECTOR
DEVELOPMENT AND INVESTMENT (PSD&I)

- i. to analyze economic trends to identify opportunities for private sector growth and investment in the economy;
- ii. to develop strategic plans to enhance public-private partnerships and investment frameworks;
- iii. to conduct feasibility studies and impact assessments for proposed projects;
- iv. to collaborate with government agencies to formulate policies that stimulate private sector development;
- v. to provide expert advice on regulatory reforms to improve the business environment;
- vi. to facilitate workshops and training sessions for stakeholders on investment strategies;
- vii. to monitor and evaluate the implementation of development projects to ensure alignment with objectives;
- viii. to prepare detailed reports and presentations for senior officials and policymakers;
- ix. engage with international development partners to leverage resources and expertise;
- x. promote innovation and entrepreneurship within the private sector to drive economic growth; and
- xi. to carry out any other task assigned by Prime Minister, Minister and/or Secretary, PD&SI.