

JOB DESCRIPTION OF CONSULTANT, SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY(S&T)

- i. To analyze current science and technology trends to inform policy development and strategic planning;
- ii. to collaborate with stakeholders to identify priority areas for research and innovation investment;
- iii. to evaluate the impact of science and technology initiatives on national development goals;
- iv. to develop frameworks to promote public-private partnerships in research and development;
- v. to provide expert and research-based recommendations on enhancing the national science and technology infrastructure;
- vi. to facilitate capacity-building programs to strengthen skills in the science and technology sector;
- vii. to prepare comprehensive reports and presentations on science and technology advancements;
- viii. to engage with international organizations to foster collaboration and knowledge exchange;
- ix. to advocate for evidence-based policies that support sustainable technological advancement;
- x. to monitor emerging technologies and their potential applications for economic growth; and
- xi. to carry out any other task assigned by Prime Minister, Minister and/or Secretary, PD&SI.