Subject: Management Training & Development Program (July - December 2024)

Dear Learning Professionals,

Greetings from PIM Islamabad.

The main focus of Pakistan Institute of Management (PIM) is to serve the country through development of human resources by conducting high quality trainings at reasonable fees. We are delighted to share the PIM Training Calendar for July – December 2024 (attached) with you.

Our team of the most eminent facilitators in academia continue to innovate to better educate our attendees. We look forward to share our learning with you and your respectable organization.

We would appreciate, if you can circulate this information internally in your organization and let us know of any nominations you may have for the program(s).
